

ANGELA'S PROFILE

STRIVING TO HELP PEOPLE
HAVE BETTER LIVES

What Others Like and Admire About Me

- Passionate about helping people.
- Focused and dedicated when training and ensures the students fully understand the material.
- Very warm and inviting personality and connects well with people.

What's Important To me:

- It is important to me that the persons we serve and support are respected and are able to feel empowered throughout their treatment.
- It is important to me that learners leave the training with a renewed sense of passion for helping the people we support
- It is important to me that learners are empowered with all the tools needed to effectively perform their duties.

How To Best Support Me In My Role As a Trainer:

- Actively participate in the training....you may not realize how much your life experiences can impact someone else in the room
- Respect your co-learners and allow everyone the opportunity to reflect on their thoughts and share what they need to.