

My name is David

This is my One Page Profile as a Person Centered Thinking Trainer

Great Things About me

I am an enthusiastic, and skilled trainer, committed to increasing the use of Person Centered Thinking tools to improve the lives of others and myself. I have participated as a trainer candidate and as a trainer in a number of Person Centered Thinking (PCT) classes. I am experienced in using the two day, three day and four day format for PCT training. I created stories to be used in training specific groups including educators and Direct Support Professionals. I have developed video clips for use in training. I am a participant in and contributor to the PCT Trainers Listserve. I have been a active participant and contributor at the Learning Community Gathering. I am currently in the process of becoming credentialed as a PCT Mentor Trainer. I currently reside and train on the central coast of California.

What we need to know/do to support Dave

Important To Dave

- Working with a team of others who are committed to using and sharing the principals of PCT.
- Staying connected with the learning community.
- Having the opportunity to contribute to the process of supporting persons with disabilities to live the lives they want as active contributing members of their community.
- Promoting the use of PCT tools throughout organizations with a mission to support others.
- Remind me to be aware of my priorities and not over commit.
- Clearly stated your expectations of me.
- Provide me with feedback on how I am meeting those expectations and how my work could be improved.
- Share your stories of successes and challenges in using Person Centered Thinking tools.
